

Non-Legal Representation Disclosure

As your advocate, you understand that we are not legal representation. We are not attorneys and do not have licenses to practice law. All legal decisions regarding your situation remain completely with you and your legal counsel. Our role is to seek out and assist you with information provided in making an informed decision about your child, based on the information available at the time.

Non-Legal Representation Disclosure Statement

I have read and understand the information regarding non-legal representation contained above.
